INTRODUCTION

1. This civil rights and wrongful death action arises out of the November 3, 2018 officer involved shooting of Laudemer Arboleda. On the date of the incident, yet-to-be-identified Danville Police Officers responded to a call about an unfamiliar person of color approaching

1 homes in the upscale Town of Danville. Police received no reports of criminal activity related to
2 the unknown man. When officers arrived, they saw Mr. Arboleda inside of his car, not
3 committing any crime or infraction. Mr. Arboleda lawfully drove away from the area. For 4 unknown reasons, officers pursued Mr. Arboleda as he drove away, even though he was not
5 suspected of committing any crime or infraction.

6 2. In fear for his life, Mr. Arboleda continued to drive away from the officers. Mr.
7 Arboleda attempted to drive into the intersection of Front Street and Diablo Road. As Mr.
8 Arboleda slowly drove through the intersection, Danville Police Officer Andrew Hall
9 inexplicably opened fire on Mr. Arboleda, by shooting into the moving car, in the middle of a
10 heavily populated intersection, on a Saturday afternoon. Mr. Arboleda was struck with multiple 11 bullets, causing his car to foreseeably careen out of control and strike multiple cars. Mr.
12 Arboleda died from his injuries.

13 3. Mr. Arboleda leaves behind a grieving mother, who brings this present action for 14 violations of state and federal law.

15 JURISDICTION

16 4. This action arises under Title 42 of the United States Code, Section 1983. The unlawful 17 acts and practices alleged herein occurred in the Town of Danville, County of Contra Costa,

19 confers venue upon this Court.
20

4 7. Defendant TOWN OF DANVILLE (hereinafter "Town") is, and at all times herein
5 mentioned, a municipal entity duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of 6 California. The Town of Danville Police Department is staffed by Deputies employed by the 7 County of Contra Costa.

8 8. Defendant COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA (hereinafter "County") is, and at all times
9 herein mentioned, a municipal entity duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of 10 California. The County of Contra Costa Sheriff's Department provided Deputies for employment
11 by the Town of Danville Police Department.

12 9. Defendant ANDREW HALL was, and at all times mentioned herein, is a
13 police officer for the Town of Danville and/or County of Contra Costa and is sued in his 14 individual and official capacity.

15 10. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and/or capacities of defendants sued herein as 16 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive, and therefore sue said defendants by such fictitious names.
17 Plaintiff will amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained.
18 Plaintiff believes and alleges that each of the DOE defendants is legally responsible and liable
19 for the incident, injuries and damages hereinafter set forth. Each defendant proximately caused 20 injuries and damages because of their negligence, breach of duty, negligent supervision,
21 management or control and in violation of public policy. Each defendant is liable for his/her 22 personal conduct, vicarious or imputed negligence, fault, or breach of duty, whether severally or 23 jointly, or whether based upon agency, employment, ownership, entrustment, custody, care or 24
25

9 14. Plaintiff timely filed a Government Tort Claim, which was rejected on December 17,
10 2018.

12 STATEMENT OF FACTS

13 15. On November 3, 2018, at approximately 11:00 a.m., an unknown person called the 14 Danville Police Department to report a man of color acting ‘suspiciously’ near Cottage
15 Lane and Laurel Drive, in the upscale Town of Danville, California. The caller did not report any 16 criminal activity whatsoever and reportedly observed an unfamiliar man approaching houses
17 with packages.

18
19 16. Danville Police Officers responded to the scene and found Mr. Laudemer Arboleda in his 20 car. Officers did not observe Mr. Laudemer committing any crime or infraction. Mr. Arboleda
21 lawfully drove away from the officers.

22 17. Without cause, Danville Police Officers decided to pursue Mr. Arboleda down a
23 populated street in the middle of a Saturday afternoon.

24 18. Mr. Arboleda attempted to slowly drive away past the officers into the intersection of 25

1 Front Street and Diablo Road. Inexplicably, Danville Police Officer Andrew Hall opened fire
2 into Mr. Arboleda's car as it passed by him. Officer Hall's actions were contraindicated, as 3 shooting into moving cars violates logic, policy, training and best practices.

4 19. Mr. Arboleda was struck by multiple bullets, causing his car to foreseeably careen out of 5 control and strike multiple vehicles. Fortunately, no other people were killed during this reckless 6 one-sided shootout.

7 20. Mr. Arboleda died as a result of multiple gunshot wounds.

8 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon allege that Town of Danville and/or 9 County of Contra Costa, and DOES 26-50, inclusive, breached their duty of care to the public in 10 that they have failed to discipline Defendant Hall and DOES 1-25 inclusive, for their respective
11 misconduct and involvement in the incident described herein, namely shooting an unarmed
12 person not suspected of any crime or infraction, in violation of logic, policy, training and best
13 practices. Their failure to discipline Defendant Hall and DOES 1-25 inclusive, demonstrates the 14 existence of an entrenched culture, policy or practice of promoting, tolerating and/or ratifying
15 with deliberate indifference, the use of excessive and the fabrication of official reports to cover
16 up the Defendant officer and DOES 1-25's inclusive, misconduct.

17 22. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that members of the Town of Danville
18 Police Department and/or County of Contra Costa Sheriff's Department, including, but not 19 limited to Defendant Hal and Does 1-25 inclusive and/or each of them, have individually and/or 20 while acting in concert with one another used excessive, arbitrary and/or unreasonable force
21 against Laudemer Arboleda.
22

23 23. Plaintiff is further informed, believe and therein allege that as a matter of official policy –
24

1 rooted in an entrenched posture of deliberate indifference to the constitutional rights of persons
2 who live, work or visit the Town of Danville, the TOWN and/or COUNTY has allowed persons
3 to be abused by its Police Officer/Deputy Sheriff's including Defendant Hall and Does 1-25
4 and/or each of them, individually and/or while acting in concert with one another.

5 24. Plaintiff is informed, believes and therein alleges that Town of Danville Police
6 Department and/or County of Contra Costa exhibits a pattern and practice of using excessive
7 force against citizens and despite these incidents, none of the Officers are ever found in violation
8 of department policy, even under the most questionable of circumstances. Danville Police
9 Department's and/or County of Contra Costa Sheriff's Department failure to discipline or retrain
10 Defendant Hall is evidence of an official policy, entrenched culture and posture of deliberate
11 indifference toward protecting citizen's rights and the resulting deaths and injuries is a proximate
12 result of the Danville Police Department and/or County of Contra Costa Sheriff's Department's 13 failure to properly supervise its Officers and ratify their unconstitutional conduct.

14 25. Plaintiff is informed, believes and therein alleges that City of Danville and/or County of 15 Contra Costa knew, had reason to know by way of actual or constructive notice of the 16 aforementioned policy, culture, pattern and/or practice and the complained of conduct and 17 resultant injuries/violations.

18 26. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendant Deputies DOES 1
19 Through 25, inclusive, and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is 20 informed, believes, and thereon alleges that each Defendant so named is responsible in some 21 manner for the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiff as set forth herein. Plaintiff will 22 amend their complaint to state the names and capacities of DOES 1-50, inclusive, when they 23 have been ascertained.
24

DAMAGES

27. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff was mentally and emotionally injured and damaged, including but not limited to Plaintiff's loss of familial relations, Decedent's society, comfort, protection, companionship, love, affection, solace, and moral support as a consequence of Defendants' violation of Plaintiff's federal civil rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Fourteenth Amendment.

28. Plaintiff, as successor-in-interest to Decedent, LAUDEMER ARBOLEDA, is entitled to Recover damages pursuant to the Decedent's right of survivorship for the pain and suffering Decedent endured as a result of the violation of Decedent's civil rights.

29. Plaintiff found it necessary to engage the services of private counsel to vindicate the Decedent and Plaintiff's rights under the law. Plaintiff is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and/or costs pursuant to statute(s) in the event that Plaintiff is the prevailing parties in this action under 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983, 1985, 1986, and 1988.

30. The conduct of the Defendant Police Officers was malicious, wanton, and oppressive. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to an award of punitive damages against said Defendant Officers.
